

CHARGE Anywhere® Completes a Partnership Agreement with Orange

South Plainfield, NJ (October 20, 2008) – CHARGE Anywhere®, a leading provider of secure mobile Point of Sale (POS) solutions and electronic payment services, is pleased to announce the completion of a partnership agreement with Orange, a leading brand of France Telecom. The agreement allows Orange to enrich its partner portfolio with industry leading wireless POS solutions offered by CHARGE Anywhere while giving CHARGE Anywhere access to an API enabling the company to address a growing international segment that is bound to define the future.

CHARGE Anywhere shares a common philosophy with Orange: strong partnerships are essential for market leadership now and in the future. "CHARGE Anywhere provides today's leading secure mobile payment solutions that in combination with Orange's innovative and growing technology will allow both organizations to solidify that leadership position for secure mobile payments." says Paul Sabella, President & CEO of CHARGE Anywhere.

Orange excels in defining new trends, bringing together networks and countries, technology, and value. A key element of success in innovation is standardization. Strong standards not only show developers the path to integration but also instill the sense of security and familiarity with technology on the part of the end user. CHARGE Anywhere is proud to partner with Orange in that undertaking.

The partnership will allow CHARGE Anywhere to transform its secure payment engine of today into a streamlined, predictable, and familiar Orange standard of tomorrow. With Orange, CHARGE Anywhere's customers will feel confident in their payment solution not only from the point of view of security and reliability, but also with the look and feel of the future, defined by Orange.

About Orange: Orange is the key brand of France Telecom, one of the world's leading telecommunications operators. France Telecom serves more than 172 million customers in five continents as of March 31, 2008, of which two thirds are Orange customers. The Group had consolidated sales of 52.9 billion euros in 2007 (13 billion euros at March 31, 2008). As of March 31, 2008, the Group had 111.9 million mobile customers and 12 million broadband internet (ADSL) customers. Launched in June 2005, the NEXt program (New Experience in Telecommunications) will enable the Group to pursue its transformation as an integrated operator and make France Telecom the benchmark for new telecommunications services in Europe. In 2006, Orange became the Group's single brand for Internet, television and mobile services in the majority of countries where the company operates, and Orange Business Services the banner for services offered to businesses worldwide. France Telecom is the number three mobile operator and the number one provider of broadband internet services in Europe and one of the world leaders in providing telecommunication services to multinational companies. France Telecom (NYSE:FTE) is listed on Euronext Paris and on the New York Stock Exchange.
