

Talus to distribute QuickSale® POS Solution to Retailers and Stadiums

April 17, 2018 South Plainfield, NJ – Talus Payments, a leading provider of payment-processing services to businesses nationwide will be teaming with Charge Anywhere to deploy Charge Anywhere's QuickSale POS chip and PIN solution.

QuickSale POS is an Android based dynamic retail cash register and retail management system that combines traditional Point-of-Sale (POS) functionality, chip and PIN payments and business management tools into one comprehensive solution. QuickSale is perfect for retailers, quick service restaurants, events, stadiums, clothing stores and many more verticals. QuickSale operates on the eloTouch POS hardware and comes with a contact and contactless chip and PIN reader with point to point encryption (P2PE) for the highest security.

"QuickSale POS is a natural evolution of Charge Anywhere's suite of payment applications and payment gateway solutions which includes ComsGate, QuickSale MPOS and QuickSale PC," commented Paul Sabella, President & CEO of Charge Anywhere. "We are proud to partner with Talus to deliver a powerful POS solution to meet the growing demand of Talus clients for reliable and cost effective POS systems."

"As point-of-sale technology continues to evolve, it's imperative that Talus continues to be at the forefront. Charge Anywhere's QuickSale POS and suite of products fulfills our technology-first promise to our clients. We are excited to partner with Charge Anywhere to provide an affordable POS system with cutting-edge technology to our clients," commented Scott Paape, SVP of Sales and Operations for Talus Payments.

As with all of Charge Anywhere's EMV certified solutions, QuickSale POS incorporates its e-Crypt point-to-point encryption technology to further secure the transaction. Merchants can utilize the QuickSale POS Portal to remotely manage products, pricing, promotions and employees in real time. With many optional hardware add-ons including cash drawers, bar code scanners and EMV reader stands, QuickSale POS can be configured to suite any merchant requirement.
